

XXVIIth ANNUAL FORUM OF YOUNG LEGAL HISTORIANS

“MEETING OF LEGAL CULTURES”

UNIVERSITY OF SARAJEVO, FACULTY OF LAW

September, 21-23, 2023

❖

Conference Program

Thursday, September 21st, 2023

Opening ceremony 19:30

National Museum of BiH, Botanical Garden

❖

Friday, September 22st, 2023

Registration: 9:00 – 9:30

Introductory lectures 9:30 – 10:30

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Ceremonial Hall (2nd floor)

- ❖ Ehlimana Memišević, University of Sarajevo: Islamic legal culture in transition
- ❖ Tomislav Karlović, University of Zagreb: Roman legal tradition in South Eastern Europe – evolution through the meeting of legal cultures

Coffee break: 10:30 – 11:00 (Balcony of the Faculty of Law, 2nd floor)

Panel I 11:00 – 12:45

Session I

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Ceremonial Hall (2nd floor)

Moderator: Mehmed Bečić, University of Sarajevo

- ❖ Alec Thompson, University of Cambridge: Lawyers and librarians: a clash of cultures
- ❖ Sebastiaan Vandenbogaerde, Antwerp University: Meeting legal cultures: Belgian lawyers travelling to overseas territories
- ❖ Tahir Herenda, University of Sarajevo: Path dependency of power sharing - Bosnia and Herzegovina's, Cyprus' and Lebanon's first experiences with popular representation
- ❖ Wang Jing, University of Ningxia: Canton export paintings and the “Eastward Spread of Western Iconography” in a legal history perspective

- ❖ Ahmet Muaz Kömür, Tekirdag Namik Kemal University: The turbulent years of the Turkish Council of State
- ❖ Ivana Marušić, University of Mostar: Ancient Middle East and the Roman world: The question of banking activity in Babylon and banking in the Roman world (online)

Session II

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Reading Room 141 (1st floor)

Moderator: Aida Salihović Gušić, University of Sarajevo

- ❖ Afra Uysal, Ibn Haldun University: Two dimensional cultural character of Ottoman law: Sharia and customary state law
- ❖ Ahmet Arslan, University of Göttingen: Meeting and collusion of different legal cultures: the top-down legal development in Türkiye, with the experiences of Ernst Eduard Hirsch
- ❖ Amila Svraka-Imamović, University of Sarajevo: Islam in Europe: the case of Bosnia and Herzegovina
- ❖ Rafał Kaczmarczyk, University of Warsaw: Elements of Islamic law within the Polish legal system
- ❖ Piotr Owsiak, Jagiellonian University in Cracow: Luxembourg – Place of meeting of Napoleonic and Germanic legal culture (online)
- ❖ Dawid Szulc, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan: The legal system of the Ottoman Empire as a meeting place of legal cultures and their incorporation (online)

Session III

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Classroom of the 4th year (3rd floor)

Moderator: Mirza Hebib, University of Sarajevo

- ❖ Masahiro Kitatani, Hitotsubashi University: The Reception of Roman Law in the field of military. Leonhardt Fronsberger and the translation of D. 49. 16. (de re militari) in his “Kriegßbuch” (1573)
- ❖ Václav Dvorský, Charles University in Prague and Catholic University of Leuven: Ex oriente inspiratio: Greek influences on Roman banking law
- ❖ Davide Luigi Totaro, University of Milano: From individual risk to risk pooling and return: A comparative and historical analysis on the insurance trend of tailorization
- ❖ Valerio Massimo Minale, University of Naples: Dushan's zakonik and Edictum Theoderici: a confrontation
- ❖ Magdalena Ossowska-Tutaj, University of Warsaw: Meeting at the same point? Civil law and common law reflections on the notion of abandonment of a thing

Panel II 12:45 – 14:15

Session I

University of Sarajevo– Faculty of Law, Ceremonial Hall (2nd floor)

Moderator: Amila Svraka-Imamović, University of Sarajevo

- ❖ Elizaveta Stetsenko, University of Cambridge: When the East meets the West
- ❖ Paweł Dziwiński, Jagiellonian University: Building the principles of Western justice – Judgement of Charlemagne on Theodulf of Orléans vs Alcuin of York, 802 A.D.
- ❖ Julie Rocheton, Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory: An endeavor to improve the legal reality: the 19th century American Civil Codes
- ❖ He Hao, Soochow University: The core essence of the cultural constitution and the path to implementation (online)
- ❖ Giulia Aurora Radice, University of Milano and Soochow University: The early-stage reception of Roman law in Japan and China (online)

Session II

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Reading Room 141 (1st floor)

Moderator: Tomislav Karlović, University of Zagreb

- ❖ Marco Castelli, University of Milan: Venice as a legal bubble? Combining ius proprium and ius comune in the Venetian territories
- ❖ Yuvan Vasanthakumaran, University of Cambridge: The role of religious law in shaping Roman legal culture and beyond
- ❖ Michael Binder, University of Vienna: The exceptio ex iure tertii in Roman law
- ❖ Eugenio Ciliberti, University of Salerno: The Chinese Civil Code as an expression of the Euroasiatic solidarity (online)
- ❖ Mirna Dajak, University of Split: Historical development of guardianship for persons with mental disorders (online)

Session III

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Classroom of the 4th year (3rd floor)

Moderator: Sebastiaan Vandenberghe, Antwerp University

- ❖ Ana Carolina Couto Pereira Pinto Barbosa, Harvard University: Legal foundations of capitalism: comparing debt crises and monetary sovereignty in Brazil and Greece
- ❖ Amber Gardeyn, Ghent University: Taking the long way home: the Belgian practice regarding Nazi Looted Art in a comparative legal-historical perspective
- ❖ Carolina Argiroffi, University of Naples “Federico II”: Comparative methods in the Italian legal discourse on labor: notes on the origins
- ❖ Michał Tutaj, University of Warsaw: Roots of the contract of mandate (and service provision) regulation in the Polish Civil Code
- ❖ Przemysław Gawron, Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, and Jan Jerzy Sowa, University of Warsaw: Swedish influence on Polish-Lithuanian military law in seventeenth century

Lunch break 14:15 – 15:15

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Library (Ground floor)

Panel III 15:15 – 16:45

Session I

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Ceremonial Hall (2nd floor)

Moderator: Monica Rita Ferrari, University of Milan

- ❖ Eva Heffernan, University of Cambridge: Spiritual societies: comparing the use of cultural and religious symbolism in ancient legal systems
- ❖ Monica Rita Ferrari, University of Milan: A family on the margins of the Empire: law and everyday life in the Papyri Euphratenses
- ❖ Tomasz Królasik, University of Warsaw: Enforcing French modern legal codes in the Duchy of Warsaw as an exemplification of the Napoleonic model of harmonization of law in Europe
- ❖ Xuewei Zhang, Sapienza University of Rome: Historical evolution of the concept of Furtum in Roman Law: a perspective from legally interest
- ❖ Athanasios Delios, Democritus University of Thrace: The evolution of wills in ancient Athens (online)
- ❖ Dóra Frey, Andrásy University Budapest: Legal transfer and settlement – influence of the legal customs of the Danube Swabians on the Hungarian legal customs (online)

Session II

University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Classroom of the 4th year (3rd floor)

Moderator: Tahir Herenda, University of Sarajevo

- ❖ Enida Dučić, University of Sarajevo: Striving for legal convergence: assessing the challenges and benefits of Ius Commune Europaeum in Bosnia and Herzegovina's private law
- ❖ Enzo Rocha Magri, University of São Paulo: The protection of sexual integrity of children in Roman law
- ❖ Ana Paula Zappellini Sassi, University of Milan: Legal transplants and gender discrimination in the crime of rape (Brazil, 1822-1890): an initial approach
- ❖ Łukasz Gołaszewski, University of Warsaw: The “causae spirituales” of the Polish nobility in the mirror of records of the ecclesiastical court in Janów Podlaski from 18th century
- ❖ Pieterjan Schepens, Ghent University: Mutualism and insurance: the earliest Belgian legislation on private sector pensions

Candidates for the XXVIIIth Annual Forum of Young Legal Historians and awarding of certificates
16:30 – 17:00, University of Sarajevo – Faculty of Law, Ceremonial Hall (2nd floor)

Dinner 19:30

Restaurant “Amerikanac”, Branilaca Sarajeva no. 5

Saturday, 23rd 2023

10:00 City tour and lunch

Book of Abstracts

