First International Scientific Conference
FROM THE HISTORY OF EDUCATION: EDUCATION AND PEDAGOGY
BETWEEN THE TWO WORLD WARS
(Osijek, September 10th and 11th 2026)

It is our pleasure to invite you to the First International Scientific Conference “From the History of Education: Education and Pedagogy between the Two World Wars.” The conference is dedicated to exploring the historical, social, pedagogical, and institutional aspects of schooling and pedagogical thought in the period between the First and Second World Wars. The aim of the conference is to encourage interdisciplinary discussion and the exchange of scholarly knowledge on the development of educational systems, teaching practices, pedagogical ideas, educational policies, and the role of schools and teachers within the context of the complex socio-political changes of the period.

We invite scholars, researchers, and professionals from the fields of history, pedagogy, education, sociology, philosophy, didactics, and related disciplines to contribute to the exploration of this important topic with their presentations.

The thematic areas of the conference include, but are not limited to:

- educational reforms and school legislation between the two world wars
- pedagogical theories and ideas in the interwar period
- teacher education and the professional identity of teachers
- schooling and education in the context of social, political, and cultural changes
- everyday school life, curricula, and teaching methods
- comparative perspectives on schooling in different European and global contexts

Abstract submission:

- Croatian or English language
- 3–5 keywords
- 250–1,000 characters
- send to the e-mail address: izpovijestiskolstva@gmail.com
